SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.
THURSDAY, November 20, 1890.Advertisements in this column at cost per line per week.

THE CHRISTMAS HERALD.

The Christmas Herald for 1890 will be entirely different in design from any previous holiday number. It will be issued in high art style, with illustrations in the beautiful photo-gravure and half tone processes, and the printing will be done on a fine quality of heavy book paper. It will be the first edition of the kind ever issued by a Utah paper.

The aim will be to present everything relating to the progress and material development of Salt Lake and the territory, but in brief, terse and succinct style. The illustrations will include the principal buildings now under way or in contemplation. The size will be reduced to handsome and convenient form, and in all the endeavor will be to prepare a number of such as will give the reader a true idea of the progress and present status of our city and territory.

The advertising space will be limited, and patrons are requested to send in orders at once. The price will be done on a fine quality of heavy book paper. It will be the first edition of the kind ever issued by a Utah paper.

Please forward orders for copies early.
